

Please don't let NAB silence satellite radio's broadcasts of local weather and traffic. These broadcasts are one of the main reasons I signed up with XM and pay a monthly fee, and blocking such transmissions might destroy the satellite radio business. Commercial radio is afraid of some healthy competition, and might have to provide a better service.